It is alleged that on October 22, on the main street of Rockville, Boswell struck Hewitt on the back of the head with a whisky bottle. He had just been cautioned by the balliff to be more careful about his language and conscious, but on the following day was able to attend to his duties. About three weeks later he was sent to a Washington hospital for an operation, his death occurring a week later.

The defense asserts that Hewitt's death was not due to the blow.

Virginia Donaldson, a middle-aged woman, was convicted in the circuit court yesterday of keeping a disorderly house near Mineral Springs. Judge Worthington suspended sentence on the woman's promise to move from Mineral Springs within two months.

eter, for it's to blame.

No less an authority than Senior Surgeon Charles E. Banks, of the United States Public Health Service, says so, but not just in these words. Dr. Banks has published an 800-word article in Health News, issued by the Public Health Service, in which he absolves the sun from blame for causing community doldrums, and blames the barometer. Here is Dr. Banks' explanation of why a few days of dull weather puts a community in a state of bodily dumps:

The normal atmospheric air exerts a physical pressure of 14.7 pounds on every square inch of the body, so that the average adult living near the sea level on a pleasant day sustains an atmospheric pressure of about fourteen tons.

But when the barometer leaves its normal gauge of 30 at sea level and goes to 29 or lower it takes off half a ton or more of the atmospheric load the ton or more of the atmospheric load the individual carries. But instead of feeling lighter and freer with this load lifted a disturbing effect is felt. It is just the game sensation of physical discomfort and general depression. Dr. Banks says, that one feels in moutain limbing.

The sun isn't to blame at all. Dr. The sun isn't to blame at all, Dr. Banks says, otherwise night watchmen and workers on morning newspapers would be chronic invalids, and mine workers the most unhealthy people in

"It is just as well to know these fun-damental facts," Dr. Banks adds, "but naturally there is no remedy to be pre-scribed. As Mark Twain said about the weather, 'We talk a lot about it, but we never do anything to improve it."

$100,000 to Relieve Distress in Colorado

NEW YORK, March 31.-John D. Rockefeller, jr., in a telegram to the Colorado State committee on unemployment and relief, announced that the Rockefeller foundation stood ready to contribute $100,000 to relieve distress among the workers in Colorado, par-ticularly in the mining districts.

On March 25 the committee sent a telegram to Mr. Rockefeller saying there was considerable distress in Colorado, and that although contributions had been received or piedged from vari-ous sources, the indications were that the funds so gathered would be insufficient to meet the needs.

In his telegram Mr. Rockefeller informed the committee the Rockefeller foundation stood ready to meet any deficit up to $100,000.

YEAR'S BUSIEST DAY

Total of $27,500 Worth of Bonds Sold, and 280 Shares of Stock Traded.

The Washington Stock Exchange today witnessed the busiest day of the year, or since trading was resumed in December. A total of $27,500 worth of bonds were sold, and 280 shares of stock changed hands. The major part of the business was transacted after the regular call had been concluded, and under the support of the buying orders which were upon

of the buying orders which were upon the floor prices were firm.

Potomac Electric Power Consolidated 5 per cent bonds, and the issues of the Washington Railway and Electric Company were the market leaders. A total of $15,000 worth of the power company bonds were traded in at par, the price established yesterday, and the Railway 4's, found a good market at 81, $10,000 worth being disposed of at that figure.

The other bond sales included $1,500 worth of Capital Traction 5's at 105, and a Washington Gas 5 at 104%.

Railway Preferred At 83. The trading in the Washington Railway and Electric stocks developed after "call." An odd lot of the preferred, consisting of 10 shares, sold at 83, or one-half a point below yesterday's price; an additional 5 shares were disposed of at 83½, while the final sale, 10 shares, sold up one-eighth point, at Washington Railway and Electric common registered the heaviest sales of the day, at a slightly fluctuating price. In quotation lots, 100 shares were traded in at 87½. The sale of another quotation lot advanced the price to 88. The drop of an eighth brought out an additional 109 shares, at 87%, and the business of the day concluded with the sales of 25 shares at 88.
